

Author Talk- Sara North

Tuesday, November 19 at 6:30 PM

Sara North is a New England native who often dreams of Paris. While books held her heart first, Sara's training included writing and story development for both film and television scripts and fueled her desire to create with heart.

I Love You in French is a sweet, swoony, small-town, closed door rom-com with lots of heat but none of the spice (except cinnamon). Full of the warmth of the fall season, it's the first in a series of standalone rom-coms set in the fictional New England town of Birch Borough.
