3D MODELING WORKSHOP

Wednesday, December 17
3:30 PM

In this workshop, teens will learn to use Tinkercad, an online 3D modeling software, to create digital objects. At the end of the workshop, teens will have created a keychain or game piece of their design, and will have the option to have it 3D-printed on one of Phillips Exeter's 3D printers to be picked up at a later date.

No prior experience required. Bring your own computers or use one of the library's!

Free and open to all teens ages 12-18.
